EEXCESS

- Enhancing Europe's eXchange in Cultural Educational and Scientific reSources

Motivation

- Ganz enorme Menge von kulturellen/wissenschaftlichen Ressourcen

Collections
Trust

- Verteilung der Inhalte in unzähligen
Spezielsammlungen
– Bildung von Fachcommunités
- ABER: Fassungsvermögen des WWW
unbegrenzt

In Realitas

- Nicht leicht, relevante Inhalte zu finden
- Wertvoller, nutzbringender Inhalt oft nicht auffindbar, weil man nicht weiß, wo man suchen soll
- Wissenschaftliche Publikationen, kulturelle und pädagogische Inhalte verstreut in zahlreichen, hoch spezialisierten Datenbanken

→ Wie kommt man nun aber an diese Inhalte, wenn man nicht alle Systeme kennt oder durchsuchen möchte?

Vision

Unfold the treasure of cultural, scientific and educational long-tail content for the benefit of all users

3 Nutzergruppen als Testfälle definiert

- Educational Support

- Kulturellen / wissenschaftlichen Inhalte direkt in Lernmanagementsystemen nutzen

- Scholarly Communication

- Verbindung schaffen zwischen kulturellem und wissenschaftlichem Inhalt

- General Public Education

- Verbreitung der Inhalte in der Öffentlichkeit durch Browser-Plugins

Zugang - Idee

„Bring the content to the user, not the user to the content“

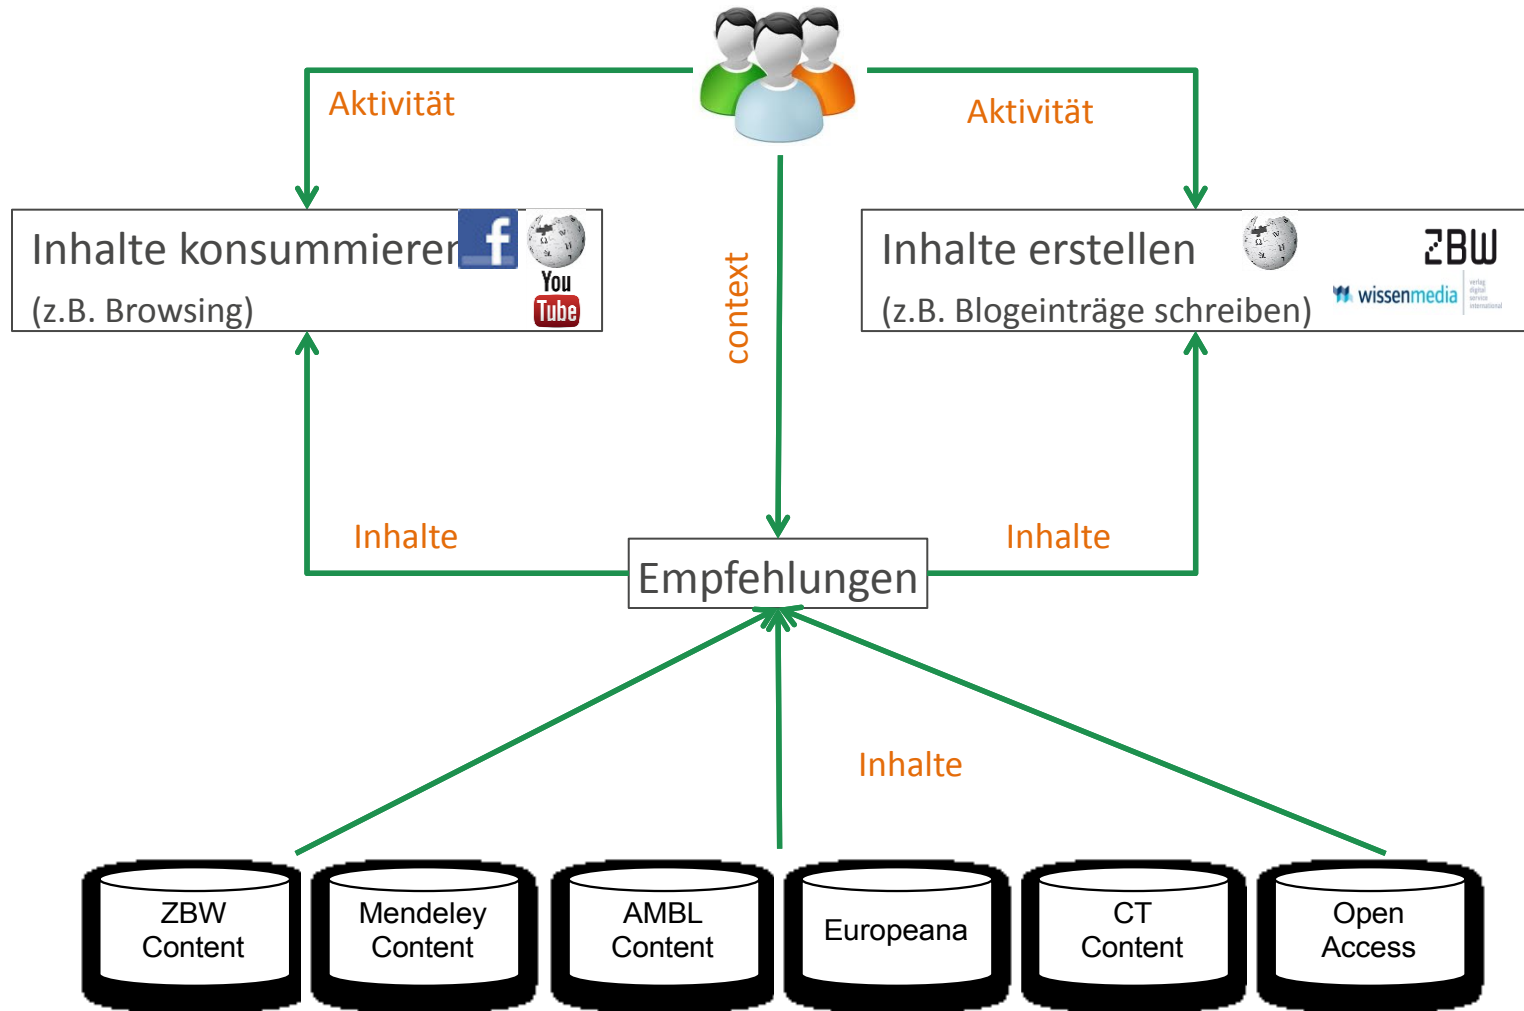

- Verbreitung von kulturellen Inhalten in existierenden Internetkanälen
 - Websites (Wikipedia, etc.)
 - CMS/LMS
 - Social media channels (Twitter, etc.)
 - “tail-channels” – weitverbreitete Systeme
- Nutzung von Wissen und Feedback der User um über die Verbreitung und die Nutzung der Daten zu lernen

Requires high-quality, context dependent injections of resources (aka personalised recommendations)

Zugang - Überblick

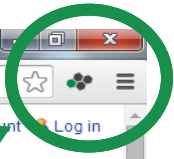

EEXCESS – Google Chrome Browser Plug In

- Add-on zu Browser Google Chrome
- Anleitung zur Aktivierung auf eexcess.eu
- Erweitert die Suche in wikimedia um mögliche Suchergebnisse aus Datenbeständen von
 - Mendeley (breit gefächerte wissenschaftliche Inhalte)
 - Deutsche Zentralbibliothek für Wirtschaftswissenschaften (wirtschaftliche, ökonomische Publikationen und Literatur)
 - Europeana (kulturelle Inhalte)
- Geplant bis Ende 2014:
 - Wissenmedia (Brockhaus Inhalte)
 - Hauptabteilung für Archäologie und Museum des Kantons Basel Land (regionale, kulturelle Inhalte)

Valencia

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

This article is about the city in Spain. For other uses, see Valencia (disambiguation).

Valencia (Spanish: [baˈleɲθja]), or València (Valencian), is the capital of the autonomous community of Valencia and the third largest city in Spain after Madrid and Barcelona, with around 800,000 inhabitants in the administrative centre. Valencia is also Spain's third largest metropolitan area, with a population ranging from 1.7 to 2.5 million. The city has global city status.^[1] The Port of Valencia is the 5th busiest container port in Europe and the largest on the Mediterranean Sea, with a trade volume of 4.21 million TEU's.^[2]

Valencia was founded as a Roman colony in 138 BC. The city is situated on the banks of the Turia, on the east coast of the Iberian Peninsula, fronting the Gulf of Valencia on the Mediterranean Sea. Its historic centre is one of the largest in Spain, with approximately 169 acres;^[3] this heritage of ancient monuments, views and cultural attractions makes Valencia one of the country's most popular tourist destinations. Major monuments include Valencia Cathedral, the Torres de Serranos, the Torres de Quart, the Llotja de la Seda (declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1996), and the Ciutat de les Arts i les Ciències (City of Arts and Sciences), an entertainment-based cultural and architectural complex designed by Santiago Calatrava and Félix Candela.^[4] The Museu de Belles Arts de València houses a large collection of paintings from the 14th to the 18th centuries, including works by Velázquez, El Greco, and Goya, as well as an important series of engravings by Piranesi.^[5] The Institut Valencià d'Art Modern (Valencian Institute of Modern Art) houses both permanent collections and temporary exhibitions of contemporary art and photography.^[6]

Valencia is integrated into an industrial area on the Costa del Azahar (Orange Blossom Coast). Valencia's main festival is the Falles. The traditional Spanish dish, paella, originated in Valencia.
